Carson City, NV – September 4, 2025 – Eagle Valley Children's Home is excited to share that local business leaders have shown generous support for its inaugural Swing into Action golf tournament, set to take place on October 4th at Silver Oak Golf Course. This tournament serves as a fundraiser where every swing matters, and every dollar collected will have significantly impact on the mission of Eagle Valley Children's Home, a charitable organization that provides exceptional services and care to individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Founded in 1946, this marks the first community fundraising event for Eagle Valley Children's Home (EVCH), and golfers of all skill levels are warmly invited to participate and make a difference. The EVCH Board Chair and retired business leader, Jerry Gregory shared, "This golf tournament not only promises a day of friendly competition and fun but also serves as a vital fundraising effort to ensure the continuation of EVCH services. We are thankful for the overwhelming support from our community sponsors who stepped up to make this event possible."
